JOURNAL OF CONTEMPORARY HISTORY
in 1978

major papers on political, social and intellectual history from an international range of contributors, plus two special theme-oriented issues:

Worker's Culture

Introduction by Gerhard A Ritter, and specially-commissioned contributions from Charles P Korr, David A Steinber, William Weber, Dieter Dowe, Alfons Labisch, Ted W Margadant, Anson G Rabinbach, and Klaus Tenfelde, covering a range of perspectives on this topical subject area, from organized sport and organized labour to artisans in concert life to democratic youth movements, in England, German, France and Austria between the mid-19th and mid-20th Century.
Volume 13 Number 2 April 1978 200 pp.

Conservative Movements

Preface by Robert Nisbet, and Epilogue by Eugen Weber. Papers on a wide variety of aspects of this critical modern question by David Noble, Howard Erdman, RAH Robinson, Stanley Payne, Michael Sutton, D P Walker, J G Bulpitt, Arnold Beichmann, and Urs Altermatt, among others. Countries and periods covered include England, the USA, Germany, India, Spain, France, and Holland, in crucial periods ranging from 1834 through 1977 (in the case of Spain specifically).

Volume 13 Number 4 October 1978 230pp
